Cox Puts Democratic Campaign Squarely on League of Nations.

IOWA ADDRESS FREELY QUOTED.

Republicans Trying to Bolster Fight, Says Cox.

Last Senate Reserves Used and Root Comes to Aid.

Resentment Grows at Harding, Speech Statements.

DETROIT, Oct. 15.—Gov. Cox announced tonight that his campaign would be fought squarely upon the League of Nations issue, as drawn by Senator Harding in the latter's Des Moines (Iowa) speech in which the senator said that he favored "staying out."

The governor's announcement was made in a statement replying to that issued by thirty-one prominent Republicans headed by Will R. Root, Herbert Hoover and others, declaring their support of Senator Harding.

That he did not see how the thirty-one signers could support Mr. Harding consistently was asserted by Gov. Cox here before an address at the auditorium. The governor's statement said:

STANDS ON LEAGUE.
The gentlemen say, "The question is whether we shall join an agreement containing the exact provision negotiated by President Wilson, or an agreement which omits or modifies some of its provisions." It is to be inferred that anyone who stands for the covenant as adopted, with or without reservations, is friendly to the League, and that anyone who is against the covenant, with or without reservations, is clearly opposed to the League.

Senator Harding, in his Des Moines speech said: "Gov. Cox favors going into the League and I favor staying out. I am not interested in the League, but I am interested in the people of America to decide the case just as these gentlemen have presented it. I submit in answer to the spoken words of Senator Harding, if these gentlemen do not accept what he said to the American people, then it is past my understanding how they can, as a matter of ethics, advocate his candidacy."

JUSTIFY POSITION.
If, on the other hand, they do accept in good faith what he has said, then I cannot see how they can, as friends of the League, advocate his candidacy. They attempt to justify their most astonishing position on the theory that President Wilson was unbending in his attitude on the League. On the subject they say Mr. Wilson insisted upon the agreement absolutely unchanged. These gentlemen, upon reflection, must realize that this is not justified by the facts.

Citing the reservations offered by Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, administration leader in the treaty contest, Gov. Cox recounted that President Wilson had written Senator Hitchcock, stating that he could accept the reservations "as they stand."

RESENTMENT FLOWING.
In conclusion, Gov. Cox said: "If things continue as they have been going for the last ten days, it will be a difficult matter to determine whether the people are more amused at Senator Harding himself or at the desperation of his sponsors. A frantic effort is being made to stem the tide of resentment which is flowing in every community."

"The Senatorial oligarchy has apparently drawn up its last reserves and yet Mr. Root, pre-eminent and distinguished as he is, is unable to bolster up the warring and wobbly candidates. After a long period of vacillation, the people have taken him at his spoken word at stating that the peace treaty runs 'willy nilly' will be fought. Senator Harding is against the League, with or without reservations. Upon that we are willing to rest our case."

In his speech here tonight, and also in a half-dozen other cities today through Ohio, Gov. Cox announced his stand on the League of Nations. A feature was a speech at Marion, the home of Senator Harding. Several thousand persons there and at other Ohio points cheered and applauded him. At Marion the governor made no personal reference to Mr. Harding.

COVENANT PRINTING.
Cautious reply was made by the governor at Carey to Senator Harding's statement yesterday regarding printing of the League covenant. He said: "Senator Harding refers to my charge that the Republicans have printed as a document the covenant of the League in order that the public might read it by stating that the peace treaty runs into 80,000 words, but of course he knows the difference between the treaty and the covenant. The latter stands out clearly and alone. The covenant requires less than four columns of space in a newspaper, and yet the candidate for the Presidency attempts to justify the conspiracy of silence by a clearly implied misrepresentation."

"He might as well have said that you couldn't print the Ten Commandments without printing the entire Bible."

Most of Gov. Cox's speech today was from the rear platform. In compliance with his demands for less strenuous work at all stops, he was greeted by large crowds and applauded frequently. At Dayton speeches, he quoted the Bible, declaring to every audience that in championing the League he stood for the creed of Christ and not the creed of Cain.

WRANGLE ADVANCED.
REBASTOPOOL, Oct. 15.—Gen. Wrangel's advance across the Dnieper is proving successful in spite of stubborn Bolshevik resistance and counter-movements in the direction of Polesia station on the northeastern front.

GEN. WRANGLER realizes the grave dangers ahead because of the Polish attack, but has expressed confidence that any offensive on the part of the Bolsheviks is months away. The Bolsheviks must replace immense quantities of munitions.

ST. CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.
RIGA, Oct. 14.—The Bolsheviks and Poles are reported to have completed a secret agreement at Riga whereby Poland gets timber concessions in Russia and iron ore concessions in Ukraine in lieu of the gold settlement the Poles had asked for. UNION IN BALTIC.
Confirmation of the rumored plan of Poland and Finland to form and dominate a Baltic union is pronounced to be seen by some political observers in the arrival here of Rudolph Holsti, Finnish Minister of Foreign Affairs, for negotiations with M. Domokai, head of the Lithuanian government. He is rumored to have reached an understanding on the union plan.

Lithuanians are agitated by the Polish announcement that two regiments were moving to dislodge Gen. Zeligowski's outlaw troops from Vilnius. The Lithuanians have mobilized on the border to resist the "outlaw" advance should they attempt to cross.

"We might as well have said that you couldn't print the Ten Commandments without printing the entire Bible."

COUNTLESS TRYING TO FORCE BIGAMY SUIT.
STARTS DIVORCE ACTION, BUT HUSBAND REJECTS IT: TOO DOMESTIC.

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.
DENVER, Oct. 15.—Countess Ida von Clausen-Honan-Davis-Donna-Mayberry, has started another action for divorce here which her husband says she will drop and she declares she will not.

Asked her reports that she never had been divorced from Francis Albert Donna, whom she married in New York in 1914, the Countess said: "That is true. I have not divorced anybody in the last few years. I marry whom I like. I am trying to please the New York authorities in this matter. He is a good-looking fellow. All my husbands have been that. But he and I are inharmonious. He has the old-fashioned idea of a man's life. He wants me to give up my public life, my right to the people of America, and for judgments that I will not do. He wants me to be domestic."

"Good Lord, I tried that with him in California, the first time I was married to him. The soup soured. He was on the dining-room table. As for cooking, mercy!"

"I will go through with the suit that I have started in Denver. My husband is all for the article—he is a cinema man, you know, and I am for the practice."

The Mayberrys arrived in Denver a few days ago and took rooms at 1310 Sherman street. The Countess consulted Attorney Sobel and divorce papers once more were prepared and served on Capt. Mayberry, charging cruelty.

Capt. Mayberry, when seen Thursday night at the Sherman-street address, said:

"We have affected a reconciliation. That is all, and he spread his hands in a gesture of indifference. The divorce suit was smoothed over. 'Mrs. Mayberry is here with me. The action has been dropped.'"

Frida, however, the Countess announced that the captain had gone away on business and that she would press the suit and in Denver. "Harding is elected I will probably be a member of his Cabinet," she said. "I cannot give up my career as Capt. Mayberry wants me to do."

STANDARD OIL ENTERS FRANCE.

He could make a statement. Asked if it was true that a Franco-American Standard Oil Company had been organized, Mr. Bedford replied:

"We have had a subsidiary branch in France since last April. The article in the Temps says the American Standard Oil Company controls 51 per cent of the company, and the Bank De Paris et Pays Bas 51 per cent."

The American representatives of the company are given as A. C. Bedford, H. E. Bedford and W. O. Caldwell, and the French members as the Camille, Horace Finlay and Jules Rein.

BITTER OPPOSITION.
In Bourne circles it was contended generally that the formation of the company was a direct result of negotiations which had been going on for the past year in efforts by the Standard Oil Company to gain the right to enlarge its business in France, but in which it was opposed bitterly by the other oil interests of the country.

The Standard Oil Company asserted that it was just the subject of the French government. The Standard Oil Company April 1 organized a French concern for handling petrol products, with a capital of 25,000,000 francs.

Complaint was made some months ago by the Standard Oil Company that the French government was interfering in the way of introduction of fuel oil into France by the other oil interests of the country.

In May it was learned in Paris that the State Department at Washington had made representations on the subject to the French government.

DANIELS ORDERS HAITIAN INQUIRY.

visited the Virgin Islands last year did not act on the department's suggestion to include Haiti in its itinerary.

Secretary Daniels at the same time made public Col. Russell's report on the investigation ordered by Gen. Barnett. Although directed to the department under date of March 12, 1920, the report never reached there, the secretary said, until brought back by Maj. Gen. John A. Lejeune, commander of the corps, on his recent return from Haiti. A joint report of Gen. Lejeune and Brig. Gen. S. D. Butler, who accompanied the Marine Corps commandant to Haiti, giving the result of a supplementary investigation made by them, also was given out.

Col. Russell's report of last March placed the responsibility for conditions in Northern Haiti on Maj. Clarke H. Wells, who had been in command of that district.

Expressing doubt as to whether evidence secured in the investigation was sufficient to warrant trial by general court-martial on charges of such a serious nature, Col. Russell recommended that the evidence be placed before the Judge Advocate General of the Navy for determination as to whether the officer should be tried.

COURT-MARTIALS URGED.
While agreeing with Col. Russell as to Maj. Wells' responsibility for conditions, the report of Gen. Lejeune and Butler recommended court-martial proceedings as well against all persons implicated who can be brought within the jurisdiction of the court.

That there had been illegal execution of prisoners in Northern Haiti during the winter of 1919-20 became known to Brig. Gen. A. W. Catitt, made an investigation the following March, the two generals reported.

ELECTION MACHINERY.
The Republicans are viewing with satisfaction the possession of the most important election machinery by virtue of the fact that the State administration is Republican. They say it means a honest count of the vote. The Democratic leaders say it means the Republicans will rig the election if the result is close.

Indications point to the election of Richard P. Ernst, a wealthy Colorado banker, to the U. S. Senate over the present Democratic Senator, J. C. W. Beckham. This prospect is due not only to the popularity of the Republican candidate, but to the unpopularity of Beckham, who got in bad with the Kentucky voters by voting dry in the State.

Beckham and the women by opposing equal suffrage. He also angered the Irish-Americans by refusing to place him in the vote of a Senator to recognize the independence of Ireland.

Beckham is also confident that they will defeat Democratic Congressman Thomas. There is some doubt, however, of the re-election of Representative King Swope, Republican.

ply of coal on hand, it will be necessary to institute rigid economy. It is probable petrol and portable foodstuffs will be carried on passenger trains.

The prospect of the railway men striking in sympathy with the miners is viewed with grave concern in government circles. Plans made by the Ministry of Food for use if a trouble extends, are on a more comprehensive scale than during last year's strike.

The country had been partitioned into fourteen divisions with a divisional commissioner for each area, who will be responsible for it.

Hyde Park will be London's cleared house for milk and the disposal of foodstuffs into the districts covered by the milk lorries. Labor organizations may co-operate with the Ministry of Food in the distribution. The sugar ration was reduced by half immediately, and other commodities rationed when it becomes necessary.

SALMON CONSIGNMENT VAUED AT MILLIONS.
(BY A P. NIGHT WIRE.)

SEATTLE (Wash.) Oct. 15.—Salmon consignments at the Seattle port commission terminals here today totaled 40,020 tons, valued at $10,000,000, showing an increase of 44 per cent over last year's consignments. It was stated by Capt. Inar A. Pederson, traffic manager, that the commission has shipped 12,000 tons of salmon to date, Capt. Pederson said.

LWYER, MERCHANT FIGHT KNIFE DUEL.
PARIS (Ill.) Oct. 15.—Harvey Gross, lawyer, and Jacob Taffner, a local merchant, fought with knives in the former's office this morning. Both may die. The trouble grew out of a bill from a St. Louis wholesale house which had been sent to the attorney for collection.

MOROCCAN TOWN CAPTURED.
MADRID, Oct. 15.—An official statement announcing the capture of the important Moroccan town of Sheeshan by Spanish forces was issued today.

DECLARING IT WAS UNFORTUNATE that Gen. Barnett should have addressed a personal and confidential letter to Col. Russell, which did not appear in the official file, Mr. Daniels said, the general's recent report was the first intimation that ever came to me that anybody had ever said there ever had been 'indiscriminate killings' by Marines or the gendarmes during the winter of 1919-20. I never, had discussed the situation with him before ordering the investigation, the secretary said, and he had at once approved it with the direction that it be expedited.

CANADIAN VETS HIT DRY LAWS.
Say Prohibition is Anti-British; Rap Oriental Immigration.

BY A P. NIGHT WIRE.
VICTORIA (B. C.) Oct. 15.—Army and navy veterans of Canada in convention here today adopted resolutions declaring the present prohibition acts in Canada are "anti-British and interfere with individual liberty." The convention also declared in favor of restricting or barring oriental immigration. Another resolution demanded that immigration of laborers from Southern Europe be stopped.

RAPS WASTE BY DEMOCRATS.

"under," he continued, "at the assumption of those who, having no practical program to offer at home, constructive proposals to make for America, should be going the length and breadth of the land, proposing that the League of Nations be negotiated by the President."

He adopted a Democratic President, even if he were elected, would not be able to bind the American people or mortgage their conscience and their honor under the League of Nations.

His attempt would result in another stalemate, and an unwilling America would find herself shut out of the world of large, but is about the most contemptible act of the kind he could do since the bungled negotiations at Paris."

DEMOCRATS IMPOTENT.
The reason a Democratic president could do nothing toward putting the League of Nations into effect, he said, is that behind the representatives at Washington, the American people have rejected membership of that league. They have rejected it long ago; they will continue their refusal to enter the Paris league as it stands. The proposal of our opponents that the American people accept it as it stands, without change, is an additional affront and the American people are justified in asking: 'How many times must we say no?'

He said that the Democrats of America doing everything that they can, either independently or with other nations, to prevent future wars. He placed only two qualifications upon their contribution. First, their contribution shall actually be something to prevent war. Second, America must retain the right to exercise her own conscience.

FAVORS CO-OPERATION.
"I am for co-operation among nations. I am not unmindful of the new order and we have never failed humanity nor turned our back on real progress. The Senate and our party have reached much good in a new world-fellowship and co-operation, but we insist on rejecting all that menaces American Artistic Liberty and the supergovernment is repugnant to every American ideal. To be practical we must separate the wheat from the chaff. More than that, I say that the American people already have done so, and that the chaff makes up more than half of the Democratic candidate has long ago blown down the wind to oblivion."

NO ISSUE IS DRAWN.
"There is no issue drawn between the President's league and no league or association. There never has been. But we are against the League which was negotiated and interwoven with the peace treaty, defiance of friendly American warning. Few people in America are opposed to a new relationship for nations. In the Senate we went a long way toward accepting the President's league by regarding the interests and freedom of America. But the President rejected the

MRS. WILSON HAS QUIET BIRTHDAY

First Lady Spends Day in White House; Cake is Dinner Feature.

(REUTERS DISPATCH.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—
Mrs. Wilson celebrated her forty-eighth birthday anniversary
today quietly at the White House. Aside from a huge cake, the creation of the combined efforts of the cooks,
there was only the usual dinner
this evening. A similar cake graced the executive dinner table last week on the occasion of Admiral Grayson's
forty-second birthday anniversary.
Many messages of congratulation
to Mrs. Wilson reached the White House during the day. More than a score of townfolk, including relatives, called. She also received a large number of gifts, a number of the tokens
from children being simple.

SOLDIER SCRIBE.
For the interviewer he traced his history as a scribe from the time
when he contributed to the Stars and Stripes overseas. After being passed and returning to this country,
he was sent to Camp Lewis and
there wrote news for the Seattle Times. When he was discharged from the Army he went to New York
and at the request of his father took a vacation of three months. He then secured a position on the New York Herald and was one of the seven men left from the old staff of the Herald who had been with it
since the first issue of the paper.
The day following the death of the Herald he became ill with the flu and was incapacitated for some time. When he recovered he went to work on the New York Times and has since been with that organization.
His total news writing experience
covers fourteen months.

His companion on his tour of the West is his young bride. She permitted
her husband to open the interview,
but she closed it. She entered the room after a half hour's conversation
and the talk switched to dinner.
She and Mr. Vanderbilt had motored down from Santa Barbara yesterday and both were tired.

They talked over the interview to close and went away, wondering
how he was to explain to his city
editor the fact that he didn't get a regular interview, but realizing that he had met a "regular guy."

DEATH PENALTY STANDS
Supreme Court Affirms Sentence
Against Convicted Prema Man.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—
Sentence of death imposed on Ernest Nakis for the murder of Edwin Taylor, known as the "old
broom man" in Fresno, May 16, 1919, was affirmed by the State Supreme Court today.

Taylor was shot while riding in an automobile with Nakis. His empty money bag was found later
near the scene of the crime and it was believed that robbery was the motive for the deed.

MAYOR HAS FLAMMER IN FOR CONFERENCE.

GETS LEGAL OPINION SAYING
PENSION WILL NOT STOP IF HE HEADS POLICE.

Mayor Snyder and Paul Flammer,
former captain of detectives, the man whom the Mayor is seeking to persuade to be Chief of Police, met at the City Hall yesterday afternoon and left the City Hall together and whirled away in the Mayor's automobile.

The meeting came after the Mayor
had received from City Attorney Burnell a written opinion to the effect that in the event Capt. Flammer accepted the appointment of Chief of Police he would not forfeit his present pension as captain of detectives,
on the retired list. Mr. Burnell stated in the opinion that he believed that if Capt. Flammer took office as Chief he should, as a salaried officer of the city, return to the police
pension fund all salary pension
accruing to him during his term as Chief. Mr. Burnell did not refer to Capt. Flammer by name in his opinion,
as the Mayor had asked the City Attorney for the pension status of a retired officer of the police department,
but it was generally accepted in the Mayor's and City Attorney's office that the inquiry related to Capt. Flammer.

The Mayor went to the Loma
Gun Club in Orange county last night
and could not be reached, but it is expected that the appointment of Capt. Flammer will be made Monday.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—A consolidation
in Washington of the Farmer-Labor party, the Triple Alliance,
labor group and the Nonpartisan League will elect their State candidates and possibly insure success for the national ticket in November, in the opinion of Joseph G. Brown, national campaign manager of the Farmer-Labor party.

An amalgamation of all groups
opposed to the Democratic and Republican tickets has been effected in Washington, his statement today says. C. J. France, candidate for Senator, and Robert H. Bridge, seeking the Governorship, head the fusion ticket.

Mr. Brown said the Socialist party
had no ticket in Washington,
and he thought the Socialist vote
would go to the third party, although official indorsement has not been made.

DEMOCRATS ISSUE DEF.

Offer $25,000 for Proof Covenant Will Abridge American Rights.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Democratic national headquarters today announced a cash prize of $25,000 had been offered by the pro-League independents to Senator Harding, Senator Johnson, Senator Borah, Senator Lodge, Chairman Hays of the Republican National Committee or anybody else in the United States who could first prove that the League of Nations would "abridge the sovereignty of America."

Prof. Irving Fisher of Yale University, chairman of the pro-League independents, explained that, under terms of the offer, essays must be received by mail or wire at 17 East Forty-first street, New York City, by October 22, that each member of a jury of twelve citizens would be appointed jointly by George White and Will Hays, chairman of the Democratic and Republican National Committee—all to be Republican if desired by Mr. Hays; and that, in case the jury was not unanimous, half the prize still may be awarded, provided a majority of the jurors so vote.

WHITE MAKES STATEMENT.
George White, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, issued the following statement on the announcement last night that thirty-one "advocates of international cooperation to promote peace" would support Senator Harding for President:

"These distinguished Republicans state that the issue is whether we shall join under the exact provisions negotiated by President Wilson in Paris or under an agreement which omits or modifies some of those provisions which are very objectionable to great numbers of the American people."

"The same newspapers which carry this pronouncement report a speech by Senator Johnson in which he said of the Harding attitude: 'He has put the League behind him. He wants neither interpretation nor reservation, but rejection.'"

"Each of these interpreters reports his views with quotations from speech" of Senator Harding, who has been most generous in saying something on all sides of the issue. "Somebody is going to be fooled."

FITZMAN AN OPTIMIST.
Democratic national headquarters today made public a telegram from Senator Fitzman, chairman of the National Committee's San Francisco headquarters, declaring that Senator Harding's statement that he has turned his back on the League has "destroyed the last hope of progressive and pro-League Re-

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—Resolutions indorsing the proposed California initiative measure denying land to the following statement of the laundrymen were adopted by the convention of the Laundry Owners' National Association today. Each delegate to the convention was urged in the resolutions to demand of his Congressmen that laws be passed to restrict further the immigration of Asians to the United States.

Henry Gilpatrick of Kansas City, Mo., was elected president and Cleveland chosen as the city for the next convention. The 1920 convention adjourned tonight.

William Fitch of Chicago was re-elected first vice-president and general manager. Two other vice-presidents were chosen—Charles O'Connor of New Orleans and Barney Galland of San Francisco.

A resolution was adopted urging laundrymen to open their plants to the public for inspection as a means of dispelling incorrect impressions regarding laundry conditions.

"I have found Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best medicine for coughs and colds I have ever used," writes Mrs. Walter Oram, Frankfort, N. Y. "I never tire of recommending it to my friends. I always keep it in the house and whenever we have used it the results have been satisfactory."

ENGLAND WORRIES.

"Those who worry most about our entrance into ocean commerce must be our cousins overseas, the British,"

Chairman Benson declared tonight in a message read by a representative of the board at the dinner which opened Merchant Marine Week.

"Plain speech harms only those who are afraid of the truth,"

the chairman said. "What American worth his salt will stand up in public and say our merchant marine is a menace to this nation or any other nation, yet we find men hid behind corporate names and organizations who have the audacity to create such an impression."

ARE TWO-FACED.
"But when you tear off the mask you find that these same men are basking in the favor of foreign shipping interests or have hopes in that direction. Now and then their efforts to muddy the waters succeed to the extent of influencing honest opinion against the shipping board's policies which aim to build a permanent merchant marine."

TAKING UP SLACK.
The magnitude of the country's effort in world shipping may seem to spell disaster to other nations, the message said, but it should not, as America was only taking up the slack in shipping brought about during the war by the work of the submarine.

SHOULD UNDERSTAND.
"But it is essential that the world should understand that we who fully appreciate the services rendered by other nations, are now ship-independently in the development of our ocean-carrying trade. We mean to play our part in manly, American fashion, and have done so from the start."

FINANCIAL WIZARD IS DECLARED INSOLVENT.

PONZI CLASSIFIED AS CLEVER MANIPULATOR WORKING ON THE CREDULOUS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
BOSTON, Oct. 15.—Charles Ponzi, whose international postal coupon scheme and offers of 50 per cent profit in forty-five days collapsed two months ago with millions of public investments tied up in it, was declared insolvent today.

While Mr. Ponzi was not to be classified in the same category with a robber and burglar, the decision said, "he was undoubtedly a clever manipulator, who took advantage of the credulity of the investing public, which, in this instance, is the user. The investors who loaned their money for a return of the principal and 50 per cent interest would seem themselves to be guilty of 'use of money' if they existed."

The referee added to his finding a statement that "there was no evidence advanced before me that Ponzi ever conducted his business by circulars or by use of mail."

Ponzi, who has been in jail two months, is under indictment by the Federal grand jury on eighty-six counts for having, it is alleged, used the mails in a scheme to defraud.

On the question of Ponzi's solvency, the referee said that both Federal accountants who testified had said he had issued notes in excess of $14,000,000 and that his outstanding liabilities at or about the time of his arrest were $15,948,267. To meet this liability one of the accountants submitted a list of assets showing the total of $1,192,640.

BOLES NATIONAL ADJUTANT.
INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 15.—Lemuel Boles of Seattle has been reappointed national adjutant of the American Legion for the coming year, it was announced at headquarters of the American Legion here today.

HEAR GOSPEL OF TERRORISM.

Used, "after being freed from much religious tradition," for a holy war
on capitalism. He said the English proletariat now were undergoing an evolution of world significance, in that a double government already
was in existence there, which meant eventually death to the bourgeoisie.

Zinovieff declared that the bourgeoisie were not entitled to any quarter, as they would not hesitate to slaughter hundreds of thousands more of the world's proletariat.

Concluding, Zinovieff said that every sentence of the Moscow platform must not be taken literally, as unalterable gospel. He invited the convention to formulate conditions
which would facilitate negotiations.

ANOTHER OUTBREAK.
This statement precipitated another outbreak among the delegates.
The convention adjourned until Friday.

During the demonstrations the Bolshevik, young, smooth-faced and slight of build, leaned on his left elbow and ran the thin fingers of his hand through his short, thick
black hair and smiled with apparent
amusement. This attitude infuriated his auditors and it was only with the greatest difficulty that the chairman was able to restore order
and soon won back the crowd's sympathy.

Zinovieff devoted much of his time to answering attacks by Herr Crispien, vice-chairman of the Independent Socialist party, and Wilhelm Dittman, radical Socialist member of the Reichstag, on the policy of the Soviet on first-hand evidence of its operations which they obtained during their visit to Moscow with Herr Stocker and Ernest Dammig.

The two last-named men supported Bolshevism during the first two days of the conference.

For fully four hours last night
Zinovieff, who is one of the four big chiefs of Soviet Russia, pleaded with the Independent Socialists at their convention here to join with Moscow, create a revolution in Germany
and help carry out the proletarian
program for a world revolution.

SING "INTERNATIONALE."
At the conclusion of his address
the radicals of the party and the audience in the packed galleries
stood with bared heads singing the "Internationale" while the conservatives walked slowly out of the hall.

A great ovation was then accorded Zinovieff, with many "hoche"
and cries of "Long live the internationale," and the waving of hats.

It is expected the vote as to whether the Independent will withdraw to the Moscow organization
will be taken today.

"CAPITALISTS' TOOLS."
At one time Zinovieff charged
the German labor unions with being "no better than Noske's white guards" and that they were tools
in the hands of the capitalists.

The audience himself, his disapproval of this declaration, and a number of the right wing leaders,
shaking their heads, rushed to the rostrum, threatening the speaker
and demanding retraction.

EXPLAINS CORRESPONDENCE.

Former President is for League of Nations, But Now Supports Harding in Hope That Some Association May Be Effected—No Chance to Break Deadlock.

BY WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

VANCOUVER (B. C.) Oct. 15.—
Mr. Cox's statement as to my correspondence with Mr. Wilson suggesting amendments to the League covenant as reported by Mr. Wilson to the Paris conference, is doubtless correct, though I have not my files to verify it. This is not news, in giving my reasons for supporting Mr. Harding immediately after his acceptance speech I said I had appeared from the same platform with Mr. Wilson, in favor of the League, as reported, with Article X, and had thereafter suggested to him amendments, some of which were adopted.

"On September 17, Mr. Foster, assistant secretary at the White House, telephoned Mr. Karger, the den of Washington correspondence,
and known to be an intimate friend
of mine, saying that the Democratic committee had applied for this correspondence, but that the White House would not give it out unless
it was considered public property.

Mr. Karger answered that he did not think it had been published.
IN FAVOR OF LEAGUE.
Mr. Karger wrote to me of the inquiry the same day and I answered that I had no objection to the publication. The correspondence shows that I was in favor of the League and Article X, as I always have been and would be now
if ratification were possible, and that I was anxious to aid Mr. Wilson in having it ratified.

"It does not show that Mr. Wilson ever conferred with the Senators who were to ratify the League,
either before he reported it or after he reported it and before it was signed. From the time it was submitted to the Senate until the Senate adopted reservations Mr. Wilson declined to consider any substantial reservations proposed in compromise. No one was authorized to speak for him in the conference lasting many months be-

between the Republican and Democratic Senators as to reservations.
A compromise would certainly
have been reached but for him.
When the Senate voted the reservations in November, 1919, Mr. Wilson was urged by the League to enforce peace, and by leading Democrats; to accept them, but he peremptorily refused then, and again
in February, 1920, and thus destroyed the League because he could not have Article X amended. Thirty-three Republicans and two Democrats who held over in the Senate
and many others who will be re-elected, will never accept Article X.
Thirty-three can defeat the treaty
by refusing to consider any substantial reservations.

WRECKED OWN LEAGUE.
Mr. Wilson is the wrecker of his own League. He has insisted on attempting to make this Article X
the issue of the campaign and is thus beaten in advance. Should Mr.
Cox, who sustains him and promises to follow his course, be elected, the futile deadlock will continue.

Mr. Harding proposes a new association of nations, with the important features of the existing League,
except Article X and the other articles, modified in the Republican reservations, and centering around an international court of justice with teeth in its constitution to decide unavoidable questions between nations.

I strongly favor Mr. Harding's election because I think the only hope of the United States entering any association of nations at all is through him. Mr. Harding will be elected overwhelmingly, not on the League issue, but because the people wish to change the Wilson Democratic administration, of which they are very tired. I agree fully in the view and believe that it is of capital importance that Mr.
Harding and a Republican Congress shall be given power to solve the great domestic problems which press
on us.

DEATH OF ARIZONA
PACKER A MYSTERY.

(BY A. F. DAY WIRE.)
NOGALES, Oct. 15.—City and county authorities were making every effort today to make clear de-initely the circumstances under which A. J. W. Born, part owner of a local meat products packing
plant, came to his death last night.

Born was about 45 years of age
and is survived by his widow, who lives in San Francisco. His body was recovered from the depths of a fifty-foot concrete-lined pit, containing about twelve feet of water.
The pit was located at the packing

plant, north of Nogales, on the Tucson-Nogales highway.
J. N. Morris, who lives across the road from the plant, told the authorities his attention was called to the plant about 8:20 o'clock last night, when he heard voices and the sound of footsteps, as of someone running. On investigating, he said, he found at the plant a man and woman, strangers, sitting in a motor truck, and that they told him Born had fallen into the pit. While he was at a neighbor's house summoning help, the couple disappeared
in the direction of Nogales, he said.
Search along the international boundary, the county roads and in town was made for the couple last night.

OTHER SPEAKERS.

President Dudley Valentine of the

Boyle Heights Improvement Association

said: "The people of Boyle Heights, demand the elimination of grade

crossings, and is now meeting the members of our association have gone on record in favor of the carrying out of the recommendation of the Sachse report, including the locating of a railroad station at the Plaza, as the only method of forever eliminating all grade crossings

in Los Angeles."

Lucius C. Dale, also a prominent member of the Boyle Heights Improvement Association, spoke in favor of the adoption of the Sachse report, building of a station at the union depot at the Plaza, calling attention to the fact that the members of the Stephenson-avenue Bus-

ness Men's Association, the Lincoln

Heights Board of Trade, the Bellevue

Improvement Association had also gone on record in favor of the Plaza

site.

George A. Damon, representing

the City Planning Association, told

the Council that the organization he represented is in favor of delay until plans for an electrified terminal

could be answered to a question

from Mr. Measner. Mr. Damon

said that he is still of the same opinion that the eight-year

plan when he declared in favor of the Plaza site for a union terminal.

M. T. Poling of Boyle Heights declared that the people of that section

believed that the elimination of

grade crossings was of first importance.

S. W. Guthrie, representing the

Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation said:

"The company I represent is not concerned whether or not a railroad

terminal is located at the Plaza or elsewhere, but we do determine to protect our property. According to the present Sachse plan,

the gas plant property on Ramirez

street will be destroyed. Chief Engineer Osborn of the Board of Public

Utilities, in commenting on Mr. Guth-rie's statement, said that the conference of engineers appointed by the Railroad Commission to consider the Sachse report had recommended a route along Alhambra avenue for Pacific Electric tracks instead of Ramirez street, which, if chosen,

would eliminate the objections raised

by the company.

DIVORCES ISHAM, MAGNATE'S SON.

Daughter of Gaylor, Former

New York Mayor, Freed.

Simple Story of Desertion

is Told in Court Here.

Marriage Was Sensation of

Year in Social World.

A plain tale of desertion won for

Mrs. Marion Isham a divorce from

Ralph Heywood Isham in Judge

Craig's court yesterday. It was such a simple story, a story of a petty

quarrel that caused her young husband to leave her several years ago,

that the morbidly curious spectators

in the courtroom yawned. They did not know that in 1914 the marriage

of the sad little woman on the witness stand created the greatest sur-

Mrs. Isham, before her marriage

on Jan. 28, 1914, in New York, was

Miss Marion Gaylor, the 16-year-old daughter of the late Mayor Gaylor

of New York. Her husband, the 23-

AN INTERESTING REVIVAL.
Sir Claude de Creigny has challenged Lord Kenyon to an old-fashioned duel to the death that honor may be satisfied. If the British government decides to be unpleasant about it the duel is to take place in France or Belgium. It takes a man with the name of Claude de Creigny to do this thing with any acuity. After all, the method is much more sporting than a committee, black-hand letters, frame-ups or campaign defamations.

THE PICTURE FRAM.
Gabriele d'Annunzio, the poet who is popularly holding his own as boss of the same debacle, has designed his flag. It is a red and bears the emblem of a snake biting its own tail, with the motto, "Who is slant us?"
"Annunzio, being a poetical soul, has imbued his design with much significance, but somehow we cannot help feeling that the impression conveyed to unsympathetic outsiders will not quite meet the warrior-poet's intentions. Red and black."

THE EASIEST WAY.
Friends of the League of Nations who are disappointed at Senator Harding's failure to indicate their own degree of enthusiasm should feel assured that when such supporters of the League as William H. H. Elihu Root, Herbert Hoover and Charles E. Hughes agree that American participation in a League can be better advanced through the election of Harding than Cox there is something more than partisan politics behind their judgment. Senator Harding will never be a stumbling block. Gov. Cox, with an untimely Senate, might easily be one.

THE HIGH COMMAND.
One of the troubles of Mexico is the objection of the generals to be demobilized. "All the rebels and privateers are ready to quit if they can get a month's pay, an acre of ground and a few garden tools. But the generals and generals wish to retain their rank and pay and a body guard. If they all have their way the country will be kept broke for the next generation. The officers want their large estates and their servants. They want their military trappings. They wish to hold all the necessary equipment to carry on a private war at the expense of the nation. It is with its overabundance of criminals that Mexico must contend. The private soldier and the individual rebel isn't much trouble. If he has a square meal and a job he is the finest kind of a home-loving patriot. Mexico must be saved from its generals."

FALSE FACES.
In so many of the strikes we are having the announcement is made that the officers of the union are urging the men to remain at work or to attempt arbitration, or the workers persist in going out. What a lot of bluff! In most cases—'s in the miners' union in Kansas and the witchmen's union in Chicago—there is an understanding between the men and the officers of the organization. The leaders may preach peace, but the men are to act for war. This saves the faces of the union officers in case of trouble, and the men are able to escape individual responsibility. In other cases the men have yielded to the fever of socialism and become more radical than their official leaders. They recognize no obligation or tie. In one case the public is bunked and in the other it is bludgeoned. This will continue as long as public sentiment will consent to the use of the strike as a weapon for labor to redress its real or fancied wrongs. It is about time the strike went into the discard.

THE PRINCE OF IRELAND.
The "Nation," a pro-Irish British journal, has solemnly come out with the suggestion that the Prince of Wales be made ruler of Ireland during the painful "readjustment process." This because of his personal popularity.
It looks like an intrigue to impair that personal popularity with a vengeance. What has the ringleader ever done that he should be marked for such a fate? This is vitiating the idea of the fathers on the head of the child under more than the third or fourth generation. Granted kings are going out of fashion, this seems rather a distressful way to eliminate the heir to the British Empire. Sacrificing the first-born has gone out of fashion, too, and for our part we should prefer to see the young heirloom spared for a little peaceful domesticity, preferably with a capable young American bride.
Our own suggestion is rather that MacSwiney be released and given the onerous position. MacSwiney yearns for martyrdom and there is no good reason why he should not be indulged.

Those who have sincerely sought to know just where the Republican party stands on the League of Nations will find that information in the statement issued last Thursday by thirty-one leading men of the country, most of them Republicans and all of them advocates of an association of nations to promote and preserve future peace. Their pronouncement is the most important document to appear since the party platforms were adopted and the speeches of acceptance made. There is not one in the list who could be accused of putting party before country. Not one of them is a candidate; not one is seeking political preferment.

They subscribe themselves as men "who desire that the United States shall do her full part in association with other civilized nations to prevent war," and state that they have "earnestly considered how we may contribute most effectively to that end by our votes in the coming election." They assert that the question before the people is not whether our country shall join such an association, because the majority of Republican leaders and of the rank and file favor it. The "solemn referendum," as they view it, is whether we shall decline to enter until the compelling feature of Article X is eliminated, until the covenant is so amended that it will create a League of Justice based on international law, until it shall partake less of the nature of a military tribunal.

Their conclusion is set forth clearly and without evasion in the following words:
"For this country we have looked only to the Republican party and its candidates; the Democratic party and Mr. Cox are bound not to follow it. The Republican party is bound by every consideration of good faith to pursue such a course until the declared object is attained."

This is a profession of faith of thirty-one advocates of the League of Nations. They unite with Senator Harding in their disapproval of the pledge contained in Article X of the present covenant. It is similar to a promissory note in business; for its worth depends upon the worth of those who have endorsed it. The names are of men who have been leaders of national thought for almost a generation. Mr. Root, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Hoover, Dr. Butler, Dr. Lowell, Lyman Abbott—any paper containing those signatures is worth its face value, whether in finance or in politics. Those men in declaring that to promote the cause of international peace it is necessary for the voters of the United States to elect Harding and Coolidge.

They would not join in any movement to "scrap the League of Nations." They have all talked personally with Senator Harding and give their joint assurance to the American people that he is not a "bitter ender." The friends of the League of Nations idea are running no risk when they trust to the judgment of such men as to the best method to further the cause of peace. They point out clearly the difference between rejecting Article X in its present form and rejecting the entire covenant.
Senator Harding has said that he will not return the peace treaty to the Senate for ratification until Article X is eliminated; but he also said that, if elected, he will proceed promptly, "with the advice and consent of the Senate," to negotiate a covenant which will constitute an association of nations founded on justice to promote the cause of peace.

Gov. Cox and his political followers are seeking by every means, whether fair or foul, to create the impression that Senator Harding is opposed to any League. They quote parts of his addresses in which he voices his opposition to Article X and convey the impression that he is opposed to the covenant as a whole. Many sincere friends of the League of Nations idea have been deceived by this studied misrepresentation on the part of the Democratic politicians. Some of them are wavering in their support of the Republican ticket because the fear that the whole covenant would be scrapped if Senator Harding were to be elected. The pronouncement from which we have just quoted should clear away their doubts. Herbert Hoover is a supporter of the League of Nations. If Senator Harding were opposed to any League Hoover would not now be supporting him. Mr. Root and Mr. Taft antedate President Wilson in their support of a world association to promote and preserve peace. If they knew, or even suspected, that Senator Harding was opposed to the cause of international association they would not be advocating his election.

Let those who are inclined to waver read carefully the statement issued by these eminent men and ask themselves if they would not be betraying the cause of international unity if they were to reject such advice and vote for Cox and Roosevelt. They will find that Senator Harding's own words are quoted with approval by these men. They will find that Harding is standing squarely on the Republican platform and that the platform is sound on the League of Nations issue. The situation is fairly and clearly stated in the following paragraph:

We have reached the conclusion that the true course to bring America into an effective League to preserve peace is not by insisting with Mr. Cox upon the acceptance of such a provision as Article X, thus prolonging the unfortunate situation created by Mr. Wilson's insistence upon that article, but by frankly calling upon the other nations to agree to changes in the proposed agreement which will obviate this vital objection and other objections to the subject of dispute.
If every friend of the cause of international peace will reach a similar conclusion Senator Harding will be the next President of the United States, elected by the friends of the League of Nations and bound alike by the Republican platform, by his own utterances and by the pledges of the Republican leaders to end the vexed controversy by negotiating an amended covenant which will enable the United States to join with other free countries in promoting and protecting the peace of the world. To elect Gov. Cox would be to add to the present world confusion.

PENRYN ON GIRLS.
Penryn Stanlows, famous American artist, says that "the average Californian girl tops her more effete eastern sister by several inches," and gives us to understand that he prefers "em long and large. If he will kindly discover that the average Californian man tops his more effete eastern brother by several inches we will let it go at that. But sometimes comparisons are odious."

SEALED FROM WITHIN.
The recent statement of Samuel Gompers that "Unionism finds its highest justification in its fruits to the individual and to society" invites a scrutiny of those "individual" fruits, the fruits to society having already proven poisonous.
Such a scrutiny reveals a crushing indictment of the labor union in the lives of its own devotees. Consider this singular fact: In all its nearly three centuries of existence, and despite a membership which has run altogether into many millions, unionism has produced not so much as ONE man who has been a great INDIVIDUAL.

From its ranks has come no voice to which the great mass of men, who are unprejudiced and responsive to any strong stimulus, have thrilled, no invention worthy of the same, no abiding thought, however simple. There have been howls and hoots and hisses. Unionism has even produced a number of noisy class leaders, who have held the limelight for a time because they threatened calamity to a community or because they cajoled some unscrupulous politician, but the general welfare or because they had attempted to dynamite a building or to paralyze an industry. But, outside of this lurid and fanatical type, unionism has produced no really conspicuous individual in any line of endeavor.

To what is this colossal failure due? Is it to the fact that laborers are obscure and have not the attention of the world? On the contrary, it is out of obscurity that every true prophet has come. It is because of poverty? Poverty has been but the spur to achievement. It is because of any distinctive condition of birth or of heritage? As a matter of fact, the labor-unionist is born and reared in precisely the same conditions out of which nine-tenths of the leaders of the world have sprung.

The fault, then, is not in the past of the individual or in his opportunity or in his position. It is in the poison that has slipped into his blood, the delusion that keeps him wandering away from his own development in search of a far-away, false dawn. The tragedy, furthermore, is in this: Man is happy only in so far as he expresses and develops his own personality, and miserable in proportion as he trades it in for some gaudy formula, some imagined shortcut to happiness.

Broadly speaking, the happiness of many men is more important than the distinction or fame of a few. But individual happiness and self-completion within a group inevitably bring forth from time to time individuals who, by their very power and personality, reflect the cumulative enthusiasm and vision of that group. Not that all men, or even a large number of men in any one group, should ever be expected to approximate complete individual development; but in any extensive group, sprung from and surrounded by men in number, less other groups who are doing the work of the world, there should always be a respectable number really finding themselves and giving expression to what they have found through some worth-while tool or process, or the utterance of some vital truth, or the singing of some enduring song.

The labor-unionists are continually grasping one another by the hand and going down into the Cave of Small Endeavor and there sealing themselves in. The front of it is the fact that they are their own prisoners, walled about and shut in by their own hands.
Outside, for three pregnant centuries, the advancing men and women of the world have called to them as they passed, "Come up and enjoy the dawn," and they have sent back the muffled answer, "It is dark here and we do not believe that there is a dawn."

Meanwhile, unseen to them, the dawn has been flooding the world—flooding it with inventions, with kindnesses and with song. In that dawn a mighty republic, built on the rock of the INDIVIDUAL, has come to take the foremost position in the world. That republic's doctrine of the value and importance and obligations of the INDIVIDUAL has run its triumphant course around the earth, breaking one shackle after another, and summoning all men everywhere to greater things within themselves. Every group, and caste and element has been quickened into deed or thought or song. Every group SAVED ONE. It is because America has at least come to realize, in addition to the menace to society, the menace to individualism in the labor union that the revolution of feeling against it is becoming ever stronger. The fundamental clash between the principles of the republic and the principles of unionism stands out today as never before, emphasized and driven home by the poisoned fruits of the union in the individual as well as in society as a whole.

For happiness is but a by-product of endeavor, and individual growth is a matter of doing—not dodging.

OUR SAMOAN TROUBLE.
When the United States acquired possession in the Pacific it also shouldered responsibilities. One of these is to forward in every possible way the well-being of the thousands of dark-brown people over whom wave the Stars and Stripes. Therefore this country has on its hands at present a Samoan problem. A rear admiral and a commission have been ordered by Secretary of the Navy Daniels to proceed to the cluster of islands which lie in a slightly curved chain far out in the Pacific, 4000 miles from Los Angeles.

It seems that two of the pure Polynesians, descendants of kings, perhaps, who were appointed native Governors of the two divisions of Tutuila, were recently removed by the American naval Governor, who charged them with disloyalty to the administration. The removal was unpopular. A California tourist, who has just returned, says the natives are much hurt "and regard this as a consequence of oppression." It is well not to pay too much attention to the views of a traveler who perhaps stayed but a few weeks at Pago Pago and obtained at best but a superficial knowledge of Samoan conditions. Nevertheless the administration at Washington has not acted unwisely in ordering an inquiry into conditions.

It is America's desire to treat with the utmost fairness the inhabitants of the extremely beautiful islands which form one of the country's far-removed possessions. We have had trouble in Samoa before. Several American and British officers and sailors were killed in the civil war in 1898 when two rival candidates fought for the throne, the islands at that time being independent, though practically under the

We can live "Noblesse Oblige," humanly, if we will.
Humanly, mind, not saintly. Cut out the slush, the emotion, the "sob stuff." No room for that with Noblesse Oblige.
We're all more or less hyphenates. There are with us wealth-humans, fox-humans, sheep-humans, pig-humans, snake-humans, bear-humans, cat-humans, dog-humans, and dog-dog-humans. There's something of some lower animal in every human, and Noblesse Oblige calls on us to dehyphenate, to live humanly in our relations with all the other humans.

To be a saint—this side of the pearly gates would be a lonesome occupation.
We can live squarely with ourselves, with our fellows and with our country—humanly—if we carry a reasonable stock of Noblesse Oblige.
For see, we have our domestic hyphen as well as alien hyphen, and it's up to us to get rid of ours. But any prefix to our title of "Citizen U. S. A." is a cloud on the title not to be borne, once the title is accepted.

An American citizen can't be half citizen of something else. We have no half portions. It's equality or nothing. It's hard to fit Noblesse Oblige to a half-citizen American. His obligation is to get out if he can't give us his entire soul.

DROLL STORIES.

According to instructions.
A traveling salesman died suddenly and was taken to his home in the West.
His relatives telephoned to the nearest florist to make a wreath. The ribbon was to be extra wide, with the inscription, "Rest in Peace" on both sides and, if there was room, "We Shall Meet in Heaven."

The florist was away and his new assistant handled the job. It was a startling floral place which turned up at the funeral.

The third grade was studying multiplication and some of the children were having trouble with the tables. One boy was having especially hard times, so his folks were helping him at home. Birch answered immediately: "I'd say, 'Nothin' doin', I won't pay it.'"

Big Job for One Man.
An American agriculturist visiting in England was telling tall tales of big broods of chickens. Twenty chickens from twelve eggs appeared to be an everyday occurrence in the States, if the stories he told were true.
"Happen you never see so many as a hundred hatched by one hen at a setting?" asked a Suffolk man across the table.
The American had never seen such a brood as that. "Well, then, I have, mister," returned the other. "Down Ipswich way we always fill a barrel with eggs and set the old hen on the luncheon."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Get His Reward.
A few miles from Dublin there lives a worthy who can never pass the village public house without "calling in just to inquire the time."
One night recently he made up, his mind to pass by. It was very hard for him to do so, and at certain intervals he stood still and said, "Stand firm resolution—stand firm."
After a hard struggle he gained a little bridge beyond the public house and, stopping again, was heard to say:
"Begorra, me bould resolution, but ye did stand firm, and for that same resolution I'll go back and trate ye!"—[Edinburgh Scotsman.]

Deprived of teeth, I cannot chew, and so I live on liquid glue and boneless soup and oatmeal mush and all varieties of slush. Strange longings through my bosom fit as in the dining-room I sit. My neighbors call for steaks and chops, while I refresh myself with slops; the men and women all around have molars firm and strong and sound; they know no spasms when they eat large slabs of beef and other meat; their laughter fills the dining-room while leaves and fishes they consume; and I sit in a shaded place and pour cheap gruel in my face. And once I had such teeth as theirs and I could bite the rungs from chairs; and to that boon I gave no heed; all thoughtlessly I used to feed, and never gave a word of thanks for my long fangs in gleaming ranks. We never prize Dame Nature's gifts until rebuking hand she lifts and takes some precious boon away and then we cry alackaday! DENTON ACT TO GO ON BOARDS.
Plumber Crowhurst, Witness in Case, Announces He's to Appear on Stage.

The day's proceedings in the Denton case were enlivened considerably by the announcement by James W. Crowhurst, the plumber, that he is going on the stage. Arrangements were completed yesterday. Mr. Crowhurst said, for his appearance in an act at a local theater beginning next week. The act, now in the course of preparation, will give him an opportunity to present his connection with the Denton murder mystery, he said, as well as bring an appropriate financial return. The statement made by him to the police is to be used as the basis for the act, Mr. Crowhurst said.

He added that he plans to submit the act to the District Attorney's office for approval, being anxious that nothing in it shall in any way hamper the solution of the mystery.

which said, "Should anything happen to me."

The trip to the Denton house yesterday was made by Mrs. Peete and her husband, Richard C. Peete, after a conversation with attorneys of the District Attorney's office. Mrs. Peete stated she had some personal property in the house and was desirous of getting it at once. The matter was taken up with Judge Avery, special administrator of the Denton estate, and a notice prohibiting entrance without formal permission from Judge Avery greeted the party at the door. When the matter was taken up with Judge Avery, he said he would grant the permission Monday, on the condition that representatives of the District Attorney's office and one of the Denton estate are present to see that only the property of Mrs. Peete is removed. The things Mrs. Peete said she wanted to get are in that closet belong to her. Mrs. Peete told the police that she failed to get into the house caused some annoyance to Mrs. Peete. She remarked that she was sorry to have made the trip from La Crescenta, but later changed her attitude and said she would go shopping. The officer and Mr. Peete did not enter the house and remained there less than ten minutes.

CARE IN POLICE.
In explaining his action, Judge Avery said last night that he had adopted a policy of extreme care in dealing with the Denton case. He said that he was not going to let the Denton case become a "brought in" of the "brought in".

That Mrs. Peete had a room at the Leavenworth Hotel from May 25 till June 5 was discovered by The Times yesterday. This room, No. 10, is the one which Mrs. Ida L. Gregory described in a statement at Denver. She and her daughter spent the night of June 1 in that room, at the request of Mrs. Peete. In this room, Mrs. Gregory said, were a trunk and grip belonging to Mrs. Peete. A careful check of the circumstances surrounding the renting of this room is to be made by the authorities. It was learned yesterday.

Mrs. Gregory's statement said that Mrs. Peete explained she rented the room before she went to the Denton home and kept it to make certain that she would have proper quarters if arrangements could not be completed for renting the house. The room, according to the information given out at the hotel, was kept until June 5, in spite of the fact that Mrs. Peete had signed a lease on the Denton house and originally planned to have Mrs. Gregory move into the Catalina street home June 1.

AIMS BLOW AT RENT RAISERS.

Pasadena Commissioner Writes to Governor.

Grass Fire Threatens Destruction of Homes.

Crown City Men Would Reclaim 50,000 Acres Land.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.) PASADENA, Oct. 15.—That the Governor and the Legislature take action to curb rent hogs, provide for building of more homes to be let at moderate rentals to wage-earners and prevent eviction of householders by profiteering landlords are urged in a letter just dispatched to Gov. Stephens today by Pasadena Commissioner John J. Hamilton, who made the document public. Commissioner Hamilton said the city was having difficulty in retaining the services of valuable employees because the landlords are gouging them so.

A housing committee of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce is also investigating the situation and is expected to make a report soon. Kenneth C. Newell, a son of City Commissioner H. F. Newell, is chairman of the committee.

GRASS FIRE THREATENS. A serious grass fire broke out in Altadena today, threatening with destruction fashionable residences on Green street and Malden Lane, in that suburb. A company of firemen and apparatus from the Pasadena fire department went to the aid of the Altadena civilians, who were ineffectual in their fight against the blaze. The firemen put the fire out before it reached the residences.

WATER UNDER LAVA BEDS. That there are valuable subterranean water resources under the great Modoc lava beds south of Lake Tula, in Northern California, and that they should be tapped for the reclamation of 10,000 acres of barren land in that region, is the opinion of E. C. L. Larue of Pasadena, director of the United States Geological Survey in this State. Mr. Larue has just returned from extensive field investigation in the Elanath River basin. He probably will recommend an exhaustive survey to determine the extent and feasibility of tapping the underground water.

BANK INCREASES CAPITAL. The First Trust and Savings Bank of Pasadena has increased its capital stock from $500,000 to $1,000,000 at the meeting of the directors, just held. The bank is affiliated with the First National Bank of this city.

URGENT ATTENTION. (LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.) REDLANDS, Oct. 15.—Dr. Herbert Stolz, formerly of this city, Rugby football star here and at Stanford University, Cecil Rhodes scholar and new assistant director of physical education in the State, spoke to the students of the high school here today.

"You are making your decision today as to your physical condition twenty years from now as much as your mental condition," he said. "If you slough in your physical training you will pay for it probably at the time when you need your best energy."

He says that the interest in correct breathing and in daily exercise has been doubled in the past few years.

THROUGH SERVICE PROMISED REDLANDS.

PACIFIC ELECTRIC PUTS NEW SCHEDULE INTO EFFECT NOVEMBER 1.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.) REDLANDS, Oct. 15.—Through car service between Redlands and Los Angeles on the Pacific Electric will begin on November 1. C. H. Jones, agent for the valley, made the announcement at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors yesterday.

There will be four trains to Los Angeles and five returning during the day. There will be two limited trains that will make no local stops except for safety. The train to Los Angeles will leave here at 7:15, 10:15 and 12:30. The return trains will be at 8:15, 1:30, 4:35, 7:30 and 10 o'clock.

The big cars of the 1200 type will be used on the line. Some changes must be made in parts of the road bed and the car barns here must be rebuilt to take care of the large cars, a wider curve into the barns being necessary.

Mr. Jones also reported that the plan for a bus line the University of Redlands have not been approved by the officials and that it will be necessary to make new arrangements for taking care of the traffic to that section.

The city is to make an effort to get the Pacific Electric to establish its station and yards at the Southern Pacific station. The triangle, where all cars start and stop now, has become so congested that a change is necessary.

HELD FOR FORGERY.

OLD OFFENDER IN TROUBLE AGAIN AT POMONA; MANY REGISTER.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) POMONA, Oct. 15.—William Pierce, alias Bill Pierce, alias J. J. Barrow, tried the old scheme of asking of George Thomas where he could cash a check, whereupon the latter identified him as the same man wanted in Ontario for passing bogus paper.

Pierce was arrested and taken to the City Jail. He admitted that the check in his possession, made in favor of J. J. Barrow, and supposedly signed by J. M. McNally of Spadra, was, in fact, made out by himself. In company with him was a girl who gave her name as Katherine Weiss of Los Angeles. The girl was released, but Pierce was handed over to the Ontario police today for further investigation.

HEAVY REGISTRATION. More than 6000 votes will be cast in the city of Pomona in the Presidential election on November 2 if all of those who have registered exercise the right of franchise. Of this number more than half have declared themselves to be Republicans.

POLICE FEUD.

Long Beach Chief Prefers New Charges Against Detective.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) LONG BEACH, Oct. 15.—Police Chief J. I. Butterfield today struck his second blow in the local police war. Recently he suspended Detective Ben W. McLendon for ten days. Today he filed with the civil service board charges against McLendon, whom he accused of treating brutally Pete Restivo, a prisoner from whom efforts were being made to obtain a confession. The other charges were that McLendon allowed two men whom he knew personally and who had been arrested for rooming-house ordinance violations, to be looked at the station under false names.

OLDEST MOTORIST ACCIDENT VICTIM.

LONG BEACH RESIDENT KILLED IN COLLISION WITH BIG TRUCK.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) LONG BEACH, Oct. 15.—This city's most elderly motorcyclist, Fred W. Rhodes, aged nearly 70, was killed almost instantly late today when his motorcycle collided with a truck driven by Jesse Jones, 802 California street, this city.

The accident occurred at Anaheim street and Atlantic avenue. Rhodes was thrown from his motorcycle and fell under the wheels of the truck which passed over his body. He lived less than two minutes. At his home, 1547 Marshall street, it was found that he had left with the family jointly occupying the house, a list of people who were to be notified in case anything happened to him. The list includes his wife, from whom he was separated, and who is living with their son, Gerald C. Rhodes in Kansas City, Mo., two brothers, Frank D. and Herbert F. Rhodes of Edgar and Craigton, Neb., respectively and a sister, Mrs. J. F. Green, Kenosha, Wis.

Rhodes' body was taken to the Patterson and McQuilkin morgue. Friends said the elderly man had been warned against riding the motorcycle, but he insisted it was safe especially because it had a side wheel attachment. It was the side wheel which locked with the truck and caused the tragedy. The truck driver was held blameless. Rhodes very recently received $5000 through a damage suit against a railroad company for the death of his daughter in an accident. He, too, was injured but received no judgment for his own injuries.

BLAMES HER BROTHER. (LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.) REDLANDS, Oct. 15.—Merchants of Redlands are keenly interested in the trial of Mrs. Esther Rosenberg at San Bernardino on a charge of having cashed travelers' checks which were stolen from Mrs. Ida Krueger in a store at Los Angeles. Mrs. Rosenberg cashed two of the checks on local merchants and attempted to cash another.

Mrs. Rosenberg makes the defense that she was misled by her brother, Jake Cohen, who has not been caught by the police since he occupied the time of her arrest. She says that he gave her the checks and told her to cash them. Three women are on the trial jury.

BAY DISTRICT VOTERS STRONG FOR HARDING.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.) SANTA MONICA, Oct. 15.—Mrs. D. G. Stevens, Presidential elector on the Republican ticket, and president of the Santa Monica Bay Republican Club, presided tonight at a meeting of the club at the McKinley School, where the Hon. This was the first meeting of the Santa Monica Republicans at which Mrs. Stevens has spoken since she was nominated, and her remarks were greeted with prolonged applause by the crowded auditorium.

Justice Ryder discussed the ideals of Republicanism, "which are the ideals of Harding and Coolidge—and of every forward thinking man and woman," he declared.

Glen H. Welch, chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee in the Ninth District, seems to have effectively nailed Congressman Randall's absurd statement that $50,000 had been contributed by the so-called wet interests in support of Charles F. A few of the misstatements issuing from Randall's campaign office in Washington, D.C., are so obvious that Randall hopes to discredit his Republican opponent, approach this in mendacity. I happen to know that it doesn't even hit the fringe of truth-telling. These mighty wallows won the game for Vernon and incidentally gave the fans a true line of Camp's ability. The newcomer is stocky built, but for all that is as fast as a chain lightning. He made several sensational catches in left field yesterday, each of which would about out the hallmarks of cleverness of any old gardener.

SEALS BEAT RAINIERS AND ARE RUNNERS UP.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—San Francisco slipped into second place in the pennant race today by beating Seattle, 3 to 1, while Sacramento was defeated by Los Angeles, 4 to 2.

The Seals got two of their runs in the seventh by bundling three hits and a sacrifice fly and the remaining tally through grouped hits in the eighth. Manager Walter of Seattle announced he would protest the game on the ground that he heard Umpire Toman call a pop fly in the seventh inning by bundling three hits and a sacrifice fly.

Whether the buying of a pennant is an offense against the law, is another question, unless such an act is committed in collusion with gamblers, which is the case in the case of the Seals. The Seals are the only team in the league that has not been investigated by the league.

Names of the gamblers alleged to have engineered these deals are in the hands of the investigators and those of the players said to have been involved are available.

Doran seems determined to purge baseball in the Coast League of every undesirable element.

Elaborate information will probably be brought out, which will tend to explain some of the baffling reversals of form displayed by individuals and teams, collectively.

TRIS SPEAKER GETS BIG BUNCH OF STOCK.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 15.—Tris Speaker, manager of the Cleveland Americans, world champion baseball team, was today presented with a large block of stock in the Dunham & McCarthy Company, Chicago railroad contractor, by James C. Dunn, president of the Cleveland club, who is president of the contracting company, as a reward for Speaker's efforts in giving Cleveland a championship team.

Scoring in every period Manual Arts celebrated its first appearance in a City League football game by defeating Jefferson on the Artisan field, 27 to 0.

Manual scored two more touchdowns than the score indicates, but interference with the receiver of a forward pass on one occasion and a fumble on the first play, negative runs of 35 and 60 yards, respectively.

FAIL TO FLASH.

While Manual won, as had been expected, from the diminutive scrapers of Jefferson, Coach Sid Foster's charges failed to display the flashy teamwork for which Manual eleven are so generally noted. This was, no doubt, due in part to the long, lean, lanky boys were here, there and everywhere. When Halback, the punter, did not get the ball, Bill did the punting. No sooner had the ball left his toe than he started stroking down the field, beating his own ends and sailing the runner on several occasions. Once he recovered a fumble by his tireless followings of the leader.

TIGHTENS UP.

Jefferson completed several long forward passes, but Manual always tightened up when the play approached his territory.

Epperson scored the first touchdown on an off-tackle buck. A blocked Jefferson punt recovered by Manual on the 3-yard line, led up to the next score, Bakerman carrying it over. Young and Loynd made the third and fourth touchdowns.

Rumor Has it that Yankees May Grab Him.

DETROIT (Mich.), Oct. 15.—Hugh Jennings today tendered his resignation as manager of the Detroit baseball club, to take effect immediately.

The letter of resignation was received by Frank J. Navin, president of the club, today. Jennings declared that he had studied the baseball situation and felt that a change would be beneficial both to the club and himself.

Jennings became manager of the Detroit Americans in 1917, piloting the team to a pennant in that year and the two succeeding seasons. Navin said today he had expected the resignation, but had no announcement to make regarding Jennings' successor.

Jennings came to Detroit from the Baltimore club of the Eastern League. His unique coaching methods are said by baseball men to have been largely responsible for the championship success of the Tigers in 1917, 1918 and 1919.

Jennings' grass pulling, leaping and yelling on the coaching line made him a notable figure in baseball. He had introduced this style of spurring his men to greater efforts. A large number of baseball stars, including Cobb, Bush and Veach, were developed by Jennings.

DETROIT (Mich.), Oct. 15.—President Frank J. Navin of the Detroit American League club has not selected a man to replace Hugh Jennings, the Tiger manager, who resigned today, he announced tonight. Jennings' resignation came so suddenly, the Tiger owner said that he had not given much consideration to a new leader for the team.

Jennings left tonight for Scranton, Pa., his home, without announcing whether he would remain in the major league baseball. His resignation, he said, was prompted by a feeling that "a change would be beneficial both to the Detroit baseball club and to myself."

Jennings' resignation came so suddenly, the Tiger owner said that he had not given much consideration to a new leader for the team.

DETROIT LOSES ITS MANAGER.

Hugh Jennings Resigns Leadership of Tigers.

Pilots Team to Pennant Three Straight Years.

Rumor Has it that Yankees May Grab Him.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
DETROIT (Mich.), Oct. 15.—Hugh Jennings today tendered his resignation as manager of the Detroit baseball club, to take effect immediately.

The letter of resignation was received by Frank J. Navin, president of the club, today. Jennings declared that he had studied the baseball situation and felt that a change would be beneficial both to the club and himself.

Jennings became manager of the Detroit Americans in 1917, piloting the team to a pennant in that year and the two succeeding seasons. Navin said today he had expected the resignation, but had no announcement to make regarding Jennings' successor.

Jennings came to Detroit from the Baltimore club of the Eastern League. His unique coaching methods are said by baseball men to have been largely responsible for the championship success of the Tigers in 1917, 1918 and 1919.

Jennings' grass pulling, leaping and yelling on the coaching line made him a notable figure in baseball. He had introduced this style of spurring his men to greater efforts. A large number of baseball stars, including Cobb, Bush and Veach, were developed by Jennings.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The resignation of Hugh Jennings, manager of the Detroit team, revived rumors here that he might find a similar berth with the New York Americans before the opening of the 1921 season.

Pretty Figures in Today's Harbor Celebration.

FROM 9 o'clock this morning, when officially begins the celebration at the harbor of the anniversary of the discovery of the port 375 years ago by Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, until late tonight when the last of street carnival crowds disperse in clouds of confetti, there will be "something doing" at the Cabrillo Day Fete, which is expected to draw 100,000 visitors and pleasure seekers to the water front.

Official opening of the Cabrillo Channel at 9 o'clock this morning will begin the program. At that hour decorated boats from San Pedro will open. The new Chief Petty Officers' Club will meet in midstream, exchange greetings and return to the harbor.

An hour later Admiral Rodman will review the entire personnel of the Pacific Fleet, and the street carnival will open. The new Chief Petty Officers' Club will meet in midstream, exchange greetings and return to the harbor.

At 11 o'clock, with addresses by Admiral Rodman, Senator Phelan and Leslie B. Henry. At the noon hour Senator Phelan will make a public address, and this will be followed by a luncheon in honor of the distinguished guests of the day at which the Women's Club members will be hostesses.

TO REPEAT DISCOVERY.

At 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon the historical pageant depicting the discovery of the harbor by Cabrillo will begin, and this will be followed by the coronation of Miss La Verne Batson, daughter of W. A. Batson of San Pedro, was elected queen of the pageant after a contest had been conducted by the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce. She received more than 210,000 votes of the total of 450,000 cast for fourteen contenders. The contest netted the celebration committee of the chamber $1500, the votes selling at 1 cent each.

Miss Elizabeth Rosemary Jack of Long Beach will represent the queen of the beaches. Miss Jack, who is the daughter of Mrs. Harriet Lavenwood Jack, 1243 Pine avenue, Long Beach, was chosen by the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce.

The battleships in the harbor will be open to public inspection all day and from 1 o'clock on Navy launches visitors will be at the docks to convey visitors to the fighting ships without charge.

VISITORS IN PARADE.

The afternoon parade, which will be participated in by representatives of eighty-five Southern California chambers of commerce, and many patriotic and civic organizations, will follow the coronation ceremony.

At 6 o'clock San Pedro will be host at an official dinner to which 400 invitations have been issued.

Admiral Rodman, Senator Phelan, Mayor Snyder, Mayor Lisenby of Long Beach and representatives of commercial organizations will be the speakers, with J. M. Cannon, head of the general celebration committee, as toastmaster.

The feature of the evening program will be a water pageant and a sham battle, to begin at 8 o'clock, in which 500 illuminated vessels of all sizes will take part. This will be made spectacular by a fireworks display. There will also be street dancing at the carnival during the evening, and an official ball will be held at the Elks clubhouse.

The Cabrillo Day celebration was made possible through Secretary I. G. Lewis of the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce. J. M. Cannon, general chairman of the event, Garnet Holme, director-general of the pageant, and the committee chiefs, who have worked day and night for the last month to put it over.

TELLING BLOWS AT DEMOCRATS.

Former Governor Discusses Campaign Issues.

Shows Tariff Need in Words of Wilson Himself.

Harding's Stand on Nations' League is Explained.

BY MYRA NYE.

Republican colors and buttons were in evidence yesterday at the Friday Morning Club, especially at the luncheon hour, when the chief speaker was ex-Gov. James N. Gillett, whose address was concerned entirely with the issues of the national campaign and how these issues are being met by the Republican party. It was "Republican Day," Mrs. O. Shepard Barnum, the president of the club announced, and the former Governor's address was straight from the shoulder.

"I cannot agree with the Democratic candidate for Vice-President, Franklin Roosevelt, who he says the tariff question in this campaign is nothing but a joke," said Mr. Gillett. "It is no joke when the lemons of California lie rotting on the ground, while Sicilian lemons are selling in New York at a price to make foreigners across the water rich, while it leaves our own California's growers facing disaster. It is no joke when our export crops may overtake the bean growers and the wool and rice growers. Such disaster is almost inevitable under Democratic rule. History of the past has proved this to be true.

WANT OUR MONEY.

"Soon the war-ridden nations abroad will recover sufficiently to dump into the American market all sorts of produce which they are willing to sell at the lowest possible price. They will pay to their laborers the depreciated money of their own country and sell the product of that labor in America to get our good money, which is worth more than par.

"The pay roll of America must be secured first," said Mr. Gillett, "and we must not let our neighbors in trouble unless we have first secured our own by which we may help."

To show that this forward look was not mere speculation, the ex-Governor recounted the disaster to trade that followed the Napoleonic wars, when foreign produce was sent to America, then without a tariff wall. Then, quoting from President Wilson, himself, he said: "When our President was a historian and not speaking from the political viewpoint, this is what he said in the history he wrote: 'After the Napoleonic wars when our industries were in danger the remedy was a protective tariff and the Republican Congress at that time did not hesitate to apply the remedy with salutary results.'"

Continuing, former Gov. Gillett said there are three classes of people as regards the second issue of the campaign, the greatest issue of all, those who believe in no League at all, those who believe in the League of our President, and third, the largest class of all, those who would have a League, but who desire to go at it thoughtfully and carefully to establish a splendid world of international relations to promote peace and harmony in the world without sacrificing the sovereignty of any country. This is favored by the Republican party, is informed by the nominee of the Republican party, Senator Harding, and is supported by Republicans and many Democrats as well.

IN OPEN CONVENTION.

In closing the speaker outlined briefly the plan of Senator Harding, who proposes, he stated, to call together the best minds of the world in open convention—not in secret behind closed doors as the one in Paris held in 1919. He drew a parallel between the results of woman's suffrage in that country and the United States, speaking particularly of the lessening of infant mortality through the efforts of the women if his country when they put through legislation which made it possible for even the rural districts to have nurses and expert care during the first year of a child's life.

Next Friday will be "Democratic Day," when the luncheon speaker will be Homer A. Cummings, former National Democratic Chairman.

UNWEDDED; ASKS CASH.

Woman Sues for Damages, Charging Promises of Matrimony.

Zena Vitos demands $10,500 damages from John Joseph Mooney because he failed, as she says, to keep his promise to marry her. The suit, filed through Attorneys Jones, Wilson and Stephenson, at 625 Metropolitan building, claims that Miss Vitos relinquished a position in San Francisco and came to Los Angeles to devote her time to Mr. Mooney, although she had been his wife. Mr. Mooney, it is contended, introduced her as his wife and addressed her as such in his correspondence.

Miss Vitos first met Mr. Mooney in San Francisco in 1923, 1924, where he was employed as a private secretary for a large corporation. He asked her to be his wife, Sept. 13, 1925, she says. He told her, she says, he intended to engage in business in Los Angeles. They went to housekeeping in this city, she says, and Mr. Mooney frequently told her they would get married. Mr. Mooney is said to be an elderly wealthy bachelor.

Keep Your Blood Pure Nature Will Do the Rest

Did you know that ninety per cent of all human ailments depend upon the condition of your blood?

Nature gives her warnings in various unmistakable ways, so that when the appetite fails, and you become weak and listless and a general run-down condition seems to take possession of the whole body, it is an unfailing sign that impurities will steadily accumulate until your general health will be seriously affected. You should recognize the importance, therefore, of very promptly cleansing out the system and keeping the blood supply pure and robust.

For this purpose, no remedy can equal S. S. S., the fine old blood purifier that has been in constant use for more than fifty years. Being made from the roots and herbs of the forest, it is purely vegetable, and contains no mineral substance.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. at your drug store today, and note how promptly it builds up the appetite and gives new strength and vitality. Write for free literature and medical advice to Chief Medical Adviser, 320 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.—(Advertisement.)

PSYCHOPATHIC CLUB RE-ELECTS OFFICERS.

MEMBERS ARE TOLD THAT NORK WALK ASYLUM WILL ASK THREE NEW BUILDINGS.

Dr. Henry G. Brainard was re-elected president of the Psychopathic Association of California at the annual meeting of that organization held Monday night at 541 Shatto Place, the home of W. S. James, the secretary, who was also re-elected. Other officers chosen to continue in their places are Judge Myers, vice-president, and Mrs. Martin Carter.

Dr. C. F. Applegate, superintendent of the State asylum at Norwalk, reported at the meeting that he will ask the next Legislature for appropriations for three new buildings which are urgently needed. Dr. Sutherland explained the need for enlarging the industrial department work in schools for defective children.

Pacific Colony will be ready for the first of the year, said a report from Nevada. Dr. Marcia Patrick, who has just returned from a vacation of three months spent in the South Sea Islands, talked on her experiences. Narcotic clinics were discussed by Dr. L. M. Powers and Frank Hutton.

Absent members of the association from whom communications were read are: Dr. Ernest Hoag, now in Hawaii, making a mental survey of the children of the Territory for the Federal government; Dr. Thomas Orison, who is now in London, Eng., and will return here within three months; and Mrs. I. P. Clark, president of Resthaven, who will return from Honolulu in about a fortnight.
